AIK Energy is a member of the Energy conference Board

Gabrielle Costigan

Managing Director, AIK Energy

The Oil and Gas Council started as a single conference in 2010.

- Six years later it had become the “world’s leading network of senior energy executives” and continues to grow. The Oil and Gas Council is no longer just one singular conference, but a network followed by 80,000 professionals around the globe.
- We connect O&G executives to each other and to the finance, government and investment communities surrounding them.
- Our network is primarily about the people in the industry. Overlying that is thought leadership and corporate development, supported by brand reinforcement.
